This Morning after Breakfast we say Goodbye to our nice Hotel & Staff & restaurant, we proceed to NAPOLI and meet our Local Guide to Visit the Cappella Sansevero (also known as the Cappella Sansevero de' Sangri or Pietatella) is a chapel located on Via Francesco de Sanctis 19, just northwest of the church of San Domenico Maggiore, in the historic center of Naples, Italy. The chapel is more properly named the Chapel of Santa Maria della Pietà. It contains works of Rococo art by some of the leading Italian artists of the 18th century. Its origin dates to 1590 when John Francesco di Sangro, Duke of Torre Maggiore, after recovering from a serious illness, had a private chapel built in what were then the gardens of the nearby Sansevero family residence, the Palazzo Sansevero. The building was converted into a family burial chapel by Alessandro di Sangro in 1613 (as inscribed on the marble plinth over the entrance to the chapel). Definitive form was given to the chapel by Raimondo di Sangro, Prince of Sansevero, who also included Masonic symbols in its reconstruction.^[2] Until 1888 a passageway connected the Sansevero palace with the chapel. The chapel received its alternative name of Pieta Tella from a painting of the Virgin Mary (La Pietà), spotted there by an unjustly arrested prisoner, as reported in the book Napoli Sacra by Cesare d'Engenio Caracciolo in 1623. When the chapel was constructed, it was originally dedicated to Santa Maria della Pietà, after the painting. After our tour we have Lunch, after Lunch we proceed to the Hotel Napoli. Dinner on your own (BL)

Wednesday , Oct 22nd NAPLES VISITING THE NATIONAL ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM OF NAPLES
